

Increase Your Capacity

National Volunteers Week

Tuesday 2nd June

10am – 1pm

Bishop's House, St George's Minster
Church Street, Doncaster, DN1 1RD

Light lunch and refreshments provided

“In a recession volunteering becomes more important than ever because it gives citizens – young and old – the confidence and skills to participate and get involved. It can also improve job prospects...” (involved Doncaster)

It's the 25th Anniversary of National Volunteers Week

- ⇒ Come along, make contacts and get ideas to increase your number of volunteers
- ⇒ Meet workers who can help and advise you with ways to increase the capacity of your organisation
- ⇒ Take part in workshops exploring a range of issues around volunteering and being a volunteer
- ⇒ Meet other organisations with experience of recruiting/supporting groups who have volunteers

Workers from Together for Regeneration (TfR), involved (Doncaster) and South Yorkshire Funding Advice Bureau (SYFAB) will be available to give useful advice, information and support to help you beat the 'Credit Crunch Blues'.

To book:

(Please note that there are 30 places available, allocated on a first come first served basis)
